

MAPPING THE WALLS

Use maps, atlases or the internet to find out where the Antonine Wall is and where Hadrian's Wall is. Then draw both walls on your map. You can label where each wall starts and ends and some of the places the walls run through.

ROMAN WALL FACTS

Call you fill in the blanks about each wall using the wordbank?

Soldiers began The Antonine Wall in _____. The wall was built out of _____.

Emperor _____ ordered the wall to be built. The wall runs from _____ to _____ . Along the wall, there are _____, and _____ The wall is _____ km long.

Hadrian 117km Wallsend
AD 122 turf Bowness-on-Solway
milecastles Old Kilpatrick AD 142 forts stone
63km fortlets Antoninus Pius forts Bo'ness

Soldiers began Hadrian's Wall in _____. The wall was built out of _____.

Emperor _____ ordered the wall to be built. The wall runs from _____ to _____ . Along the wall, there are _____, and _____ The wall is _____ km long.

Do you notice any differences between the two walls? Write down three differences:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.